POST-GAME HANOUTS - INSTRUCTIONS

Are they required?
The post-game handouts are optional for all games, whether or not you are using the Digital Game Portal.

What was that about? is a post-game summary helpful for reinforcing key lessons from the game experience.

Now what can I do? provides players actionable steps they can take in their communities to build resilience. This handout has customizable fields for the facilitator to provide location-specific information such as their office of emergency management and how to join the local CERT.

How many to print
Print 1 copy per player.

Printing instructions
Use regular 8.5” x 11” paper.
